

DO NOT REFUSE

Do not refuse;

The request for a committed offense;

The word to elucidate anybody who suffers;

One minute of attention for your family;

Your useless clothes;

The glass of milk that rests for you;

The silence at despair's moment;

The friendship in front of the disillusion;

The repose to the own brain;

The charity of a prayer.

Do not refuse the goodwill that you fit today, because nobody may foresee if the time brings new opportunities to serve tomorrow.
